

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE ACTIVITIES HELD AT ISWK

Teacher's Day Celebrations

Teacher's Day was celebrated on 4th September'2014 in the Primary wing of ISWK. The foyer was decorated with pictures of great Indian teachers as well as a myriad display of balloons and streamers in various hues. The students of Classes I - V put up a memorable assembly for their most cherished teachers. The celebration began with the lighting of the lamp by the Supervisor (Primary) followed by the co-ordinators and the other teachers. The students were ebullient as they sang a song with zeal and enthusiasm dedicated to their wonderful teachers for their hard work, patience and continuous efforts to transform them into successful learners. Some of the enthusiastic students enacted the role of few teachers much to the delight of a very excited audience who couldn't stop guessing the teacher being enacted. This was followed by a Power Point Presentation which included among other things, the childhood photos of various teachers which thrilled the children and kept them guessing. Adding to the delight was the planting of saplings by all the teachers in front of the Primary wing. It was a blessed opportunity for teachers to lend a hand to grow more trees. It was truly a memorable day that brought ever radiant smiles to every face.

The Inter Class Story Telling Competition at the Class II level was held on 18th September'2014. Children did full justice to the tips on story telling that they had been given much earlier. The mesmerized audience sat enthralled and watched with sheer delight, wonder and admiration as the young participants from each class came on stage and narrated a story. Each child put his or her best foot forward and took the onlookers into his /her own world. The captivating gestures, remarkable voice intonation, creative props and picture perfect costumes added to the beauty of the event and impressed the judges - Mrs. Annie Jaiswal , Mrs. Anu Shaikh and Mr. Cleon Luis Dias

HEALTH WALK

Excursion to the Fire Station

Excursion to the Fire Station (Class II)

The students of Class II were taken for an excursion to the Fire Station, Darsait during the school hours between the 14th – 21st of September 2014. Children received the valuable opportunity of understanding the set-up at the Fire Station as well as the usefulness and necessity of firemen and ambulances in our lives. They enjoyed the hands-on experience of sitting inside an ambulance and learning all about it. A fresh dose of excitement came their way when they were assisted by a fireman to hold a hosepipe and experience the strong gush of water out of it. Children observed the uniform worn by the firefighters. It was an enjoyable and worthwhile learning experience that will be cherished by one and all.

WAHIBA SANDS

DESERT EXPLORATION AT WAHIBA SANDS

A memorable excursion for the students of classes IV & V of the ISWK was organized to the Wahiba Sands with a view to treat the children to a first-hand knowledge of life in hot deserts. The overnight stay at the Bidiyah Desert Camp was an awe-inspiring experience for the excited young ones. The topography of a desert, its flora and fauna, lifestyle, hardships that one may face here and the natural beauty of desert lands were a vivid picture for the eyes of the children. The walk up the Sand hills to catch a glimpse of the rising sun was a breath-taking experience. The fun-filled games, organized activities, frolic with friends and a day without family, were all an enjoyable learning experience, etched for life in the memories of the young minds.

Sports Day

SPORTS DAY:

The Sports day of the Kindergarten and Primary Section (Morning / Afternoon Shift) of ISWK was held from 11th to 16th December 2014. Every single student took part in the mass drill and fun games. Participating in sports day is certainly full of fun. No matter which position oncomes in the race or what the final result is, as long as one devotes himself / herself to participating in this event, the sports day will always be a sweet and remarkable experience. The cheering teams, fabulous backdrops and decorations enhanced the spirit of the sports day.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

CHRISTMAS DAY AT THE PRIMARY

Christmas, the festival that is eagerly looked forward to, by the Christians was celebrated with great pomp and joy at the ISWK Primary Wing, on the 10th of December, 2014.

The entire foyer was adorned with lovely Christmas decorations and streamers. The children melodiously sang the Christmas carols and also gave a brief explanation about the divine festival. There were shouts of joy and laughter when the most awaited Santa Claus came in dancing and swaying his big bag of goodies. It was indeed a happy and fun filled day for the children at the Primary.
