

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL
Western Music Teacher

KABIR

JOB PROFILE- ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Western Music Teacher Job Description

We are looking for an experienced western music teacher to be responsible for teaching western music as part of the school curriculum. The western music teacher will follow the guidelines as set out by the education department which includes the theory and practice of general music, singing and playing western musical instruments. The teacher should also prepare students for exams in western music.

To be successful as a western music teacher, you should create an enjoyable learning environment to inspire young minds and help them grow in appreciation of western music. Ultimately, a top-notch western music teacher should be skilled in playing western musical instruments, planning concerts for student participation and creating after school music clubs.

Western Music Teacher Responsibilities:

Teaching general styles of music.

Teaching classical music, practical and theory.

Teaching singing to students from beginner to advanced level.

Incorporating western musical instruments and movement in lessons.

Planning and implementing a programme of instruction and lesson plans.

Preparing students for school concerts and planned music experiences.

Preparing students for practicals and exams.

Inspiring and motivating students to extend themselves to after school music clubs.

Building relationships and mentoring students.

Western Music Teacher Requirements:

Bachelor's degree in western music

Strong interpersonal and communication skills.

Choral pedagogy.

Ability to set and mark examination papers.