	SECTION A-READING (22 Marks)
Q. I	Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow:	(12)
	1.Happiness is like the sun; it is often hidden by the clouds of thoughts, worries and desires. We have to scatter and dissolve these clouds to experience happiness. You don t have to create it, all you have to do is calm your mind, because when there is a quiet mind and inner peace, there is happiness. It is not something far away and unattainable and does not depend on circumstances, objects or events. Happiness is an inseparable part of our consciousness, of our essence, but hidden and covered from sight by our thoughts, desires, and worries. 2.The mind is always in a constant race from one thought to another, from one worry to another. It constantly moves from one object or task to another. This restlessness hides the happiness that is within you. It is like a choppy sea that hides the bottom. When the sea gets calm, you can see the bottom. In the same way, when the mind gets quiet, you sense the happiness that is within you. 3.You cannot see a treasure at the bottom of a stormy and muddy lake although it is there. However, when the wind stops, the water becomes still and the mud sinks, you can see the treasure. The treasure is there, whether you see it or not. So is happiness. It is always here, only hidden by thoughts, desires and worries. 4.You can experience more happiness in your life. Only your thoughts stand in your way of experiencing it. Next time you feel happy, stop for a moment and watch the state of your mind. You will be surprised to discover that it is calm, and there are almost no thoughts in your mind. Since the mind is not accustomed to stay in this peaceful state for long, it soon becomes active again, and the sense of happiness disappears. 5.Many people connect happiness to achievement of certain goals. This makes happiness a reward and not an emotion that must be felt. We forget that it is something that comes by looking inward rather than waiting for an external trigger. Once you start looking inwards, you will have to treat yourself as you would treat a valued friend. This will lead to happiness. Take time to appreciate yourself, your work and your accomplishments. Surround yourself with happy people and recall positive memories. It is important to recognise that you have the power to feel happy within you and with practice, it will be felt frequently.

	1) Why does the writer say that you have to scatter and dissolve these clouds to experience happiness? (a) Our thoughts and worries hide the true essence of our happiness. (b) Our inner peace has to be dissolved to enhance true happiness. (c) Our desires, thoughts and worries are a part of our consciousness and bring happiness. (d) These clouds don't show us the real truth. 2) Select the option that corresponds to the following relation below: Happiness is like the sun, hidden by clouds of worry. (a) Happiness is where there is a quiet mind and inner peace. (b) Less work is like a breeze which brings happiness. (c) The choppy sea hides the treasure of happiness. (d) The wind blows and brings happiness. 3) Select the option that displays what the writer projects, with reference to the following: (Paragraph 1) Happiness is not something far away and unattainable. (a) doubt (b) caution (c) conviction (d) denial 4) Find the word from the passage that means "The main point or practical meaning of an idea". (Paragraph 1). 5) The writer compares the choppy sea hiding the bottom to _____. 6) What connect does the writer draw out between the treasure that cannot be seen and happiness? (Paragraph 3) 7) The writer says 'Next time you feel happy, stop for a moment and watch the state of your mind'. The state of your mind will be: (a) resolute (b) calm (c) firm (d) decisive	1X8=8

	8) Evaluate the inappropriate reason for having the power to feel happy to be within ourselves. (a) recalling positive memories (b) appreciating yourself (c) achievement of certain goals (d) looking inwards 9) Connecting happiness to achievement of certain goals makes it a reward, not an emotion. Justify the statement. (2) 10) Based on your reading of the text, list two reasons why the writer says happiness is an inseparable part of our consciousness (2)
Q. II.	Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow:	(10)
	(1) Increasing traffic congestion every year is causing increasing air pollution, wasting time and productivity and diverse respiratory diseases. Moreover, the cost of solving or reducing traffic congestion is enormous. However, neglecting the traffic jam problem would increase the social problems among citizens. (2) The number of vehicles has increased considerably in the city in the past five years. Due to this increase, the city roads witness frequent traffic congestions, but above all, the vehicles emitting pollutants are affecting the environment adversely. (3) The Capital's vehicular population saw an addition of more than five lakh vehicles last year, registering an increase of over 4%, according to the Delhi Economic Survey 2020-21. (4) In spite of the largest road network, through metro and bus services in major cities the transport system is not being able to keep pace with the growing demand. Consequently, more and more people use their private vehicles, leading to increased congestion on the roads. In spite of these challenges people in India prefer road travel over air and other means of travel. (5) Citizens of Delhi/NCR have, time and again, pondered over the possibilities of how to reduce the traffic congestion in the city, especially during the peak hours. People should use public transport, the government must increase the facilities of public transport, people should avoid the unnecessary collection of vehicles and should use carpool and vehicle sharing. (6) What is required is proper implementation of corrective measures by citizens to get an organized traffic management system.

	(i) Infer one reason for the following, based on information in paragraph 1. Reducing traffic congestion is not easy. (ii) Select the appropriate option to complete the following sentence. The reasons for increased traffic congestion are _____. 1. use of private vehicles 2. increase in demand for cars 3. inability to keep pace with population control 4. travelling by public transport emission of pollutants (a) 4, 5 (b) 1, 5 (c) 1, 2 (d) 2, 3 (iii) Complete the following analogy correctly with a word / phrase from the paragraph 5. organized : chaotic : : lowest : _____ (iv) The vehicles emit pollutants which affect _____ badly. (v) Fill in the blank by selecting the correct option. There are _____ consequences of increasing vehicular congestion. (a) beneficial (b) adverse (c) implicit (d) explicit (vi) Select the appropriate option which states the methods of reducing traffic congestions. 1. start car pooling 2. add electric buses 3. increase in public modes of transport 4. increase car collection points 5. increase taxation (a) 1, 4, 5 (b) 3, 5 (c) 2, 3, 4 (d) 1, 3 (vii) Analyse how the rise in private vehicle ownership has contributed both to traffic congestion and environmental degradation in Delhi/NCR. (2) (viii) Suggest two practical measures that citizens can adopt to reduce traffic congestion. (2)	1X6=6
