GHOOMAR OF RAJASTHAN

HAPPY
CHILDREN'S DAY

DANCE BY GIRLS OF IV - F

The colors, designs and swirling robes of Rajasthan have mesmerized Indian and Western women for years. Because of the folk dance form of Ghoomar of Rajasthan, outfits like Chaniya Choli or Ghagra Choli have become immensely popular. What makes Ghoomar and its accompanying attire even more alluring is the use of dance step 'Ghoomna,' in which young women twirl around with their Chaniya or Ghagra and the whirling effect produces a kaleidoscope of colors. Girls of class IV-F presented the world renowned -"Ghoomar" for the song "Ghoomar" from the movie "Padmavati."

DANCE BY BOYS OF IV - F

The Battle of Dhopal is one of the biggest battles of the 18th century and was fought between the Maratha Empire and the combined army of Mughals which resulted in Maratha victory, thanks to the tactics of Maratha Peshwa Bajirao. # TALENT HUNT OF CLASS IV

ISWK does a fantastic job in motivating young children, building confidence and morale in them to face the challenges of the future, similar to what Bajirao did to his soldiers. To prove the statement is true, few talents of class IV in ISWK mesmerized the audience with their amazing performances like abacus presentation, karate katas, singing, dance and magic show, stunts and much more...
