ISWK holds Inter-Class Choral Recitation Competition.

Co-curricular activities are an integral part of a school curriculum which help to fashion the child's personality and wholesome development of oneself. Keeping this goal in mind, the Class II students of I.S.W.K were engaged in the Inter- Class Choral Recitation Competition.

The competition was held on 13th of October, 2019.The judges, Mrs. Vaishali Parmar, Mrs. Farah Dalal and Mrs. Deepa H.K. evaluated the classes on various relevant criteria. A variety of poems were delivered written by famous poets such as Edward Lear, Roald Dahl, Shel Silverstein etc.

Amidst the atmosphere of excitement and suspense, the children used colourful props and movements to accentuate the effectiveness of their presentation. The rigorous training and hard work paid off when the judges had to deliberate in assessing the winners. Class II F was judged as the Winner of the competition, while class II I was the Second Runner -up and class II E was awarded the position as Third Runner – up.

True to the quote by Maya Angelou – 'Words mean more than what is set down on paper. It takes the human voice to infuse them with deeper meaning'. The seven - year - old's left the audience spellbound by their performance.
