

ENGLISH ELOCUTION COMPETITION CLASS V, 2019-'20

"Poetry comes alive to me through recitation,"- Natalie Merchant.

The English Elocution Competition for the students of Class V was conducted in the Primary School on 23rd October, 2019. There were 26 finalists and seven of them emerged as winners in a keenly contested competition where everyone was at their best. All the judges praised the participants on their level of confidence and variety of poems chosen. Insha Khan of Ashoka House won the first prize. The second and third prizes went to Kunsh Lalchandani of Tagore House and Ohm Anoop of Tagore House respectively. Considering the stiff competition, four consolation prizes were declared. Hence, Mihika Nair of Vivekananda House, Aashish Manoj of Ashoka House, Hayyan Syed of Vivekananda House and Dania Ann John of Vivekananda House were awarded the consolation prizes. The judges for the competition were Mrs. Batul Saiffee, Mrs. Zehra Ahmed and Mrs. Rubina Karmakar.
