

ISWK Student Wins Y's Portrait By A Nation Art Competition

DREAM BIG! SHINE BRIGHT! SPARKLE MORE!

Y Magazine- The Pulse of Oman conducted an art competition- 'Y's Portrait By A Nation'. The event was the largest of its kind in the country. It was conducted to commemorate and celebrate the 47th National Day of Oman. The competition witnessed a record 2300 participants and was held at the Muscat Grand Mall in Baushar, over the National Day weekend.

It gives us great pride to know that Rishi Vashist a Class IV student of ISWK has bagged one of the prizes for his portrait of our beloved King, His Majesty Sultan Qaboos Bin Said.

This is indeed a remarkable feat! We are immensely proud of Rishi for his well-deserved prize. The ISWK family congratulates him whole heartedly and wishes him more success in his future endeavours! Kudos to you Rishi!

Being the winner among 2300 entries is a daunting task and this just proves that if you dream big, work hard and stay focused success will definitely be at your doorstep!

So...Dream Big, Shine Bright and Sparkle More.....!!!!

