SECTION A - READING COMPREHENSION

Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

One day the wind said to the sun, "I am stronger than you." The sun laughed and said, "I do not think so! They argued for a while and decided to test their strength on a traveller.

The wind said, "There goes a man with a jacket. Can you make him take off his jacket?" They challenged each other that the one who succeeded in removing the jacket from the man's back was the strongest.

"Why don't you try first?" said the sun.

So, the sun went behind a cloud, and the wind began to blow on the man as hard as it could. The man put his head down and walked on. The wind blew harder and harder. But the man only held his jacket tighter. At last, the wind gave up and asked the sun to try.

The sun began to smile. Soon it grew warmer. The man felt hot. He undid the buttons of his jacket. The sun shone brighter and brighter and the man felt hotter and hotter. At last, he sat down on a big stone and took off his jacket.
