

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

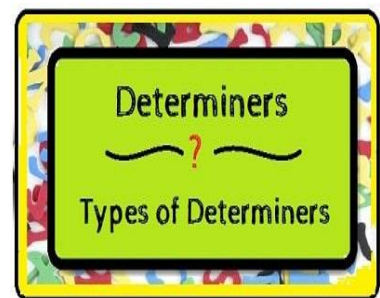

Class: VIII	Department: ENGLISH	Date of submission: MAY -2024
Worksheet No: 4	Topic: DETERMINERS	Note: TO BE DONE IN LANGUAGE NOTEBOOK

➤ What is a determiner?

A determiner, also known as a limiting adjective, is a word that appears before a noun, providing clarifying context about the number, definiteness, or ownership of the noun.

Ex.1. Fill in the blank with correct determiner.

- _____ mountains are elegant.
- _____ student received a certificate.
- _____ honest person like Ram never lies.
- They took off _____ dirty shoes.
- There are not _____ fruits in the kitchen.
- _____ is the secret of your good health.
- There is a _____ sugar in the cup.
- _____ books were missing from the library.
- How _____ juice do you need?
- There were _____ students in the lab.

Ex.2. Fill in the blanks with determiners from the box.

the, a, more, few, most, some, all, such, this, what

1. _____ kind of a pencil do you use? Do you use _____ pencil made of wood? Have you wondered why _____ pencils have six sides and _____ pencils are rounded? _____ pencils are made of wood. They can make _____ six-sided pencils out of one piece of wood than rounded pencils. It is convenient for _____ user as well. The chances of _____ SIX-sided pencil rolling off _____ desk or _____ table are fewer. So _____ pencils break less as compared to rounded ones _____ way, _____ six-sided pencils score over _____ rounded ones.

The, His, every, all, our, fourth, three, those, one, many,

2. _____ boys sitting in the _____ row, were talking. _____ teacher who is very strict saw _____ boys. _____ boy was asked to stand up. _____ of the boys said that he had fever. _____ His friends laughed. _____ boys in _____ class knew that he was lying. He was lucky that _____ teacher did not know it.

3. _____ seven- year old Arya was _____ student from Southborough, Massachusetts. He was _____ youngest delegate in President Obama’s business team. He visited India to strike business deals for his family’s health technology firm. He was in Grade II and a student at Fay School. _____ school had granted leave to _____ lad so that he could be a part of this historic trip, during which both India and _____ US signed several agreements.

WEB RESOURCES:

<https://youtu.be/8SOTehDcRao>

