

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Assessment - 1

Class: XII

Sub: MATHEMATICS (041)

Max Marks: 80

Date: 30.08.2026

(Sample Paper)

Time: 3 hr

General Instructions:

1. This question paper is divided in to 6 sections- A, B, C, D and E
2. Section A comprises of 20 MCQ type questions of 1 mark each.
3. Section B comprises of 5 Very Short Answer Type Questions of 2 marks each.
4. Section C comprises of 6 Short Answer Type Questions of 3 marks each.
5. Section D comprises of 4 Long Answer Type Questions of 5 marks each.
6. Section E comprises of 3 source based / case based / passage-based questions (4 marks each) with sub parts.
7. Internal choice has been provided for certain questions

SECTION – A

(Each MCQ Carries 1 Mark)

1. If  $f'(x) = x + \frac{1}{x}$ , then  $f(x)$  is
a)  $x^2 + \log |x| + c$       b)  $\frac{x^2}{2} + \log |x| + c$       c)  $\frac{x}{2} + \log |x| + c$       d)  $\frac{x}{2} - \log |x| + c$
2. The value of 'k' for which the function  $f(x) = \begin{cases} 3x + 5, & \text{if } x \geq 2 \\ kx^2, & \text{if } x < 2 \end{cases}$  is continuous is
a)  $\frac{-11}{4}$       b)  $\frac{11}{4}$       c)  $\frac{-4}{11}$       d)  $\frac{4}{11}$
3. Find k, if  $A = \begin{bmatrix} -2 & 3 \\ k & 4 \end{bmatrix}$  is a singular matrix
a)  $\frac{3}{8}$       b)  $\frac{-3}{8}$       c)  $\frac{-8}{3}$       d)  $\frac{8}{3}$
4. The value of  $\int_2^3 \frac{x}{x^2 + 1} dx$  is
a)  $\log 4$       b)  $\log \frac{3}{2}$       c)  $\frac{1}{2} \log 2$       d)  $\log \frac{9}{4}$
5. The value of  $\sin^{-1} \left[ \sin \left( \frac{13\pi}{7} \right) \right]$  is
a)  $\frac{13\pi}{7}$       b)  $-\frac{13\pi}{7}$       c)  $\frac{\pi}{7}$       d)  $-\frac{\pi}{7}$

- 6 Find the maximum profit that a company can make, if the profit function is given by  $P(x) = 72 + 42x - x^2$ , where  $x$  is the number of units and  $P$  is the profit in rupees.
- a) ₹ 42                                      b) ₹ 72                                      c) ₹ 114                                      d) ₹ 513
- 7  $\int \frac{(x-1)}{(x-2)(x-3)} dx$  equals
- a)  $2\log |x-3| - \log |x-2| + C$       c)  $\log |x-3| - 2\log |x-2| + C$
b)  $\log |x-3| - \log |x-2| + C$       d)  $\log |x-2| - \log |x-3| + C$
- 8 If  $[x-2 \quad 5+y] \begin{bmatrix} 0 & 1 \\ 1 & 0 \end{bmatrix} = 0$ , then  $x+y$  is
- a) 0                                      b) -1                                      c) -2                                      d) -3
- 9 Let  $\sin^{-1}(2x) + \cos^{-1}\left(\frac{1}{2}\right) = \frac{\pi}{2}$ . Then the value of ' $x$ ' is
- a)  $\frac{1}{2}$                                       b)  $\frac{1}{4}$                                       c)  $\frac{1}{8}$                                       d) 8
- 10 If  $A$  is a square matrix of order 2 and  $|A| = -3$ , then the value of  $|5A|$  is
- a) -3                                      b) -15                                      c) -75                                      d) None of these
- 11 If  $y = a \cos mx + b \sin mx$ , then  $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2}$  is
- a)  $m^2y$                                       b)  $-m^2y$                                       c)  $my$                                       d)  $-my$
- 12 Value of  $\int \frac{\cos \sqrt{x}}{\sqrt{x}} dx$  is
- a)  $-2 \sin \sqrt{x} + c$                       b)  $\sin \sqrt{x} + c$                       c)  $2 \cos \sqrt{x} + c$                       d)  $2 \sin \sqrt{x} + c$
- 13 For the function  $y = \frac{(x-7)}{(x-2)(x-3)}$ , the value of  $\left(\frac{dy}{dx}\right)_{\text{at } x=7}$  is
- a) -20                                      b)  $-\frac{1}{20}$                                       c)  $\frac{1}{20}$                                       d) 20
- 14 The radius of the circle is increasing at the rate of 0.7 cm/sec. What is the rate of increase of its circumference?
- a) 0.7                                      b)  $\pi$                                       c)  $1.4\pi$                                       d)  $2\pi$
- 15 Find  $x$  if  $\begin{vmatrix} 3 & -6 \\ 4 & 0 \end{vmatrix} = \begin{vmatrix} 3 & x^2 \\ x & -1 \end{vmatrix}$
- a) 4                                      b)  $\sqrt{-6}$                                       c) -3                                      d) None of these

- 16 The total revenue in rupees received from the sale of  $x$  units of a product is given by  $R(x) = 13x^2 + 26x + 15$ . Find the marginal revenue when  $x = 7$ .
- a) 208                      b) 54                      c) 52                      d) 13
- 17 If  $f(x) = \log x$ , then  $f'(x) + f'\left(\frac{1}{x}\right)$  is
- a)  $\frac{x^2-1}{x}$                       a)  $\frac{1-x^2}{x}$                       a)  $\frac{x^2+1}{x}$                       a)  $\frac{1+x}{x}$
- 18 If  $y = \log \sqrt{\tan x}$ , then the value of  $\frac{dy}{dx}$  at  $x = \frac{\pi}{4}$
- a)  $\infty$                       b) 1                      c)  $\frac{1}{2}$                       d) 0

Directions: In the following 2 questions, A statement of Assertion (A) is followed by a statement of Reason (R). Mark the correct choice as.

- (A) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A
 (B) Both A and R are true but R is NOT the correct explanation of A
 (C) A is true but R is false
 (D) A is false and R is True

- 19 Assertion (A): If A is a square matrix such that  $A^2 = A$ , then  $(I + A)^2 - 3A = I$
Reason (R):  $AI = IA = A$
- a)                      b)                      c)                      d)
- 20 Assertion (A): The relation  $f: \{1, 2, 3, 4\} \rightarrow \{x, y, z, p\}$  defined by  $f = \{(1, x), (2, y), (3, z)\}$  is a bijective function.
Reason (R): The relation  $f: \{1, 2, 3\} \rightarrow \{x, y, z, p\}$  such that  $f = \{(1, x), (2, y), (3, z)\}$  is one-one
- a)                      b)                      c)                      d)

SECTION – B

(Each Question Carries 2 Marks)

- 21 If  $A = \begin{bmatrix} 1 & 2 & 2 \\ 2 & 1 & x \\ -2 & 2 & -1 \end{bmatrix}$  is a matrix satisfying  $AA' = 9I$ , find  $x$

- 22 Evaluate  $\int_0^1 \frac{x e^x}{(1+x)^2} dx$

- OR -

Evaluate  $\int_1^3 \frac{\sqrt[3]{x}}{\sqrt[3]{x} + \sqrt[3]{4-x}} dx$

23 Find the value of  $\sin^{-1} \left[ \cos \left( \frac{33\pi}{5} \right) \right]$

- OR -

Find the domain of  $\sin^{-1} (x^2 - 4)$

24 Prove that the function  $f$  is surjective, where  $f: N \rightarrow N$  such that

$$f(x) = \begin{cases} \frac{n+1}{2}, & \text{if } n \text{ is odd} \\ \frac{n}{2}, & \text{if } n \text{ is even} \end{cases}$$

Is the function injective? Justify your answer.

25 Find the value of 'a' and 'b' such that the function defined is a continuous function

$$f(x) = \begin{cases} 5, & \text{if } x \leq 2 \\ ax + b, & \text{if } 2 < x < 10 \\ 21, & \text{if } x \geq 10 \end{cases}$$

SECTION – C

(Each Question Carries 3 Marks)

26 Find  $\frac{dy}{dx}$  if  $x = a \left( \cos t + \log \tan \frac{t}{2} \right)$  and  $y = a \sin t$

27 Integrate the function  $\int \frac{x^2 + 1}{x^2 - 5x + 6} dx$

- OR -

Evaluate  $\int_1^3 |x^3 - 2x| dx$

28 The volume of a cube is increasing at a rate of 9 cubic centimetres per second. How fast is the surface area increasing when the length of an edge is 10 centimetres?

- OR -

A particle moves along the curve  $y = \frac{2}{3}x^3 + 1$ . Find the coordinates of the points on the curve at which the y-coordinate is changing twice as fast as the x coordinate.

29 Let  $f: N \rightarrow R$  be a function defined as  $f(x) = 4x^2 + 12x + 15$ , where R is the range of  $f$ . Show that the function  $f(x)$  is one-one.

- OR -

Check whether a function  $f: R \rightarrow \left[ -\frac{1}{2}, \frac{1}{2} \right]$  defined as  $f(x) = \frac{x}{(1+x)^2}$  is one-one or onto or not

30 Express the matrix  $A = \begin{bmatrix} 2 & 4 & -6 \\ 7 & 3 & 5 \\ 1 & -2 & 4 \end{bmatrix}$  as the sum of a symmetric and skew symmetric matrix.

31 If  $y = 3 \cos (\log x) + 4 \sin (\log x)$ , show that  $x^2 y_2 + xy_1 + y = 0$

SECTION – D

(Each Question Carries 5 Marks)

- 32 Define the relation  $R$  in the set  $N \times N$  as follows:

For  $(a, b), (c, d) \in N \times N$ ,  $(a, b) R (c, d)$  iff  $ad = bc$ .

Prove that  $R$  is an equivalence relation in  $N \times N$ .

- OR -

Show that the function  $f: R \rightarrow \{x \in R : -1 < x < 1\}$  defined by  $f(x) = \frac{x}{1+|x|}$ ,
 $x \in R$  is a one-one onto function

- 33 The equilibrium conditions for three competitive markets are described as given below, where  $m_1$ ,  $m_2$  and  $m_3$  are the equilibrium price for each market respectively.

$$m_1 + 2m_2 + 3m_3 = 85$$

$$3m_1 + 2m_2 + 2m_3 = 105$$

$$2m_1 + 3m_2 + 2m_3 = 110$$

Using matrix method, find the values of respective equilibrium prices

- 34 Find  $\frac{dy}{dx}$  of the function  $x^y + y^x = 1$

- OR -

If  $y = Ae^{mx} + Be^{nx}$ , show that  $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2} - (m+n)\frac{dy}{dx} + mny = 0$

- 35 Integrate the function  $\int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{\sin x + \cos x}{\sqrt{\sin 2x}} dx$

SECTION – E

(CASE STUDY - Each Question Carries 4 Marks)

- 36 Read the following passage and answer the questions given below.

The temperature of a person during an intestinal illness is given by $f(x) = -0.1x^2 + mx + 98.6$ ,  $0 \leq x \leq 12$ ,  $m$  being a constant, where  $f(x)$  is the temperature in  $F^\circ$  at  $x$  days.

- (i) Is the function differentiable in the interval  $(0, 12)$ ? Justify your answer (1m)
- (ii) If 6 is the critical point of the function, then find the value of the constant  $m$  (1m)
- (iii) Find the intervals in which the function is strictly increasing / strictly decreasing. (2m)

- OR -

Find the points of local maximum / local minimum, if any, in the interval  $(0, 12)$  as well as the points of absolute maximum / absolute minimum in the interval  $[0, 12]$ . Also, find the corresponding local maximum / local minimum. (2m)

- 37 For an EMC project, a student of Class XII makes an open cardboard box for a jewelry shop from a square sheet of side 18 cm by cutting off squares from each corner and folding up the flaps. Assume that 'x' be the side of squares cut off from each corner. Based on the given information, answer the following questions.

- (i) For the open box, find the length, breadth and height in terms of x. (1m)
- (ii) Write an expression for the volume of the open box. (1m)
- (iii) For what value of 'x', the open box will have maximum volume? (2m)

- OR -

Find the maximum value of volume of the open box. (2m)

- 38 Gautam buys 5 pens, 3 bags and 1 instrument box and pays a sum of ₹160. From the same shop, Vikram buys 2 pens, 1 bag and 3 instrument boxes and pays a sum of ₹190. Also, Ankur buys 1 pen, 2 bags and 4 instrument boxes and pays a sum of ₹250. Based on the above information, answer the following questions.

- (i) Convert the given above situation into a matrix equation of the form  $AX = B$  (1m)
- (ii) Find  $|A|$  (1m)
- (iii) Find  $A^{-1}$  (2m)

- OR -

Determine  $P = A^2 - 5A$  (2m)

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Assessment - 1

Class: XII

Sub: MATHEMATICS (041)

Max Marks: 80

Date: 30.08.2026

(Answers)

Time: 3 hr

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1  | b) $\frac{x^2}{2} + \log  x  + c$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 2  | b) $\frac{11}{4}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 3  | c) $\frac{-8}{3}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 4  | c) $\frac{1}{2} \log 2$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 5  | d) $-\frac{\pi}{7}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 6  | d) ₹ 513                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 7  | a) $2 \log  x - 3  - \log  x - 2  + C$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 8  | d) -3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 9  | b) $\frac{1}{4}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 10 | c) -75                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 11 | b) $-m^2y$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 12 | d) $2 \sin \sqrt{x} + c$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 13 | c) $\frac{1}{20}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 14 | d) $2\pi$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 15 | c) -3                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 16 | a) 208                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 17 | a) $\frac{x^2 + 1}{x}$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 18 | b) 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 19 | (A) Both A and R are true and R is the correct explanation of A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 20 | (D) A is false and R is True                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 21 | $AA' = \begin{bmatrix} 1 & 2 & 2 \\ 2 & 1 & x \\ -2 & 2 & -1 \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} 1 & 2 & -2 \\ 2 & 1 & 2 \\ 2 & x & -1 \end{bmatrix} = 9 \begin{bmatrix} 1 & 0 & 0 \\ 0 & 1 & 0 \\ 0 & 0 & 1 \end{bmatrix}$ $\begin{bmatrix} 9 & 2x+4 & 0 \\ 2x+4 & x^2+5 & -x-2 \\ 0 & -x-2 & 9 \end{bmatrix} = \begin{bmatrix} 9 & 0 & 0 \\ 0 & 9 & 0 \\ 0 & 0 & 9 \end{bmatrix}$ $2x+4=0$ $x=-2$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 22 |   <math display="block">I = \int_0^1 \frac{xe^x}{(1+x)^2} dx</math> <math display="block">= \int_0^1 \frac{(x+1)-1}{(1+x)^2} \cdot e^x dx</math> <math display="block">= \int_0^1 \left[ \frac{(x+1)e^x}{(x+1)^2} - \frac{e^x}{(x+1)^2} \right] dx</math> <math display="block">= \int_0^1 e^x \left[ \frac{1}{1+x} - \frac{1}{(1+x)^2} \right] dx :</math>   Let <math>I = \int_1^3 \frac{\sqrt[3]{x}}{\sqrt[3]{x} + \sqrt[3]{4-x}} dx \dots\dots(1)</math> <math display="block">I = \int_1^3 \frac{\sqrt[3]{4-x}}{\sqrt[3]{4-x} + \sqrt[3]{4-(4-x)}} dx</math> <math display="block">I = \int_1^3 \frac{\sqrt[3]{4-x}}{\sqrt[3]{4-x} + \sqrt[3]{x}} dx \dots\dots(2)</math>   |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | $= \left[ e^x \frac{1}{1+x} \right]_0^1$ $[\because \int e^x [f(x) + f'(x)] dx = e^x f(x) + c]$ $= \frac{e^1}{1+1} - \frac{e^0}{1+0} = \frac{e}{2} - 1$ $I = \frac{e}{2} - 1$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Adding (1) and (2), we get $2I = \int_1^3 \frac{\sqrt[3]{x} + \sqrt[3]{4-x}}{\sqrt[3]{4-x} + \sqrt[3]{x}} dx$ $2I = \int_1^3 1 dx$ $2I = x \Big _1^3$ $2I = 3 - 1 = 2 \text{ gives } I = 1$ |
| 23 | $\sin^{-1} \left( \cos \left( \frac{33\pi}{5} \right) \right) = \sin^{-1} \cos \left( 6\pi + \frac{3\pi}{5} \right) = \sin^{-1} \cos \left( \frac{3\pi}{5} \right) = \sin^{-1} \sin \left( \frac{\pi}{2} - \frac{3\pi}{5} \right)$ $= \frac{\pi}{2} - \frac{3\pi}{5} = -\frac{\pi}{10}$ OR $-1 \leq (x^2 - 4) \leq 1 \Rightarrow 3 \leq x^2 \leq 5 \Rightarrow \sqrt{3} \leq  x  \leq \sqrt{5}$ $\Rightarrow x \in [-\sqrt{5}, -\sqrt{3}] \cup [\sqrt{3}, \sqrt{5}]. \text{ So, required domain is } [-\sqrt{5}, -\sqrt{3}] \cup [\sqrt{3}, \sqrt{5}].$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 24 | Let <math>y \in N(\text{codomain})</math>. Then <math>\exists 2y \in N(\text{domain})</math> such that <math>f(2y) = \frac{2y}{2} = y</math>. Hence, <math>f</math> is surjective. <math>1, 2 \in N(\text{domain})</math> such that <math>f(1) = 1 = f(2)</math> Hence, <math>f</math> is not injective.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 25 | Given that the function is continuous at <math>x = 2</math>. Therefore, <math>\text{LHL} = \text{RHL} = f(2)</math> $\Rightarrow \lim_{x \rightarrow 2^-} f(x) = \lim_{x \rightarrow 2^+} f(x) = f(2)$ $\Rightarrow \lim_{x \rightarrow 2^-} 5 = \lim_{x \rightarrow 2^+} ax + b = 5$ $\Rightarrow 2a + b = 5 \dots (i)$ Given that the function is continuous at <math>x = 10</math>. Therefore, <math>\text{LHL} = \text{RHL} = f(10)</math> $\Rightarrow \lim_{x \rightarrow 10^-} f(x) = \lim_{x \rightarrow 10^+} f(x) = f(10)$ $\Rightarrow \lim_{x \rightarrow 10^-} ax + b = \lim_{x \rightarrow 10^+} 21 = 21$ $\Rightarrow 10a + b = 21 \dots (ii)$ Solving the equation (i) and (ii), we get <math>a = 2</math> <math>b = 1</math>                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 26 | here, <math>x = a \left( \cos t + \log \tan \frac{t}{2} \right)</math> Therefore, <math>\frac{dx}{dt} = a \left( -\sin t + \frac{1}{\tan \frac{t}{2}} \cdot \sec^2 \frac{t}{2} \cdot \frac{1}{2} \right) = a \left( -\sin t + \frac{\cos \frac{t}{2}}{\sin \frac{t}{2}} \cdot \frac{1}{\cos^2 \frac{t}{2}} \cdot \frac{1}{2} \right)</math> $= a \left( -\sin t + \frac{1}{2 \sin \frac{t}{2} \cos \frac{t}{2}} \right) = a \left( -\sin t + \frac{1}{\sin t} \right)$ $= a \left( \frac{-\sin^2 t + 1}{\sin t} \right) = a \left( \frac{\cos^2 t}{\sin t} \right)$ <math>y = a \sin t</math>      <math>\frac{dy}{dt} = a \cos t</math>      <math>\frac{dy}{dx} = \frac{\frac{dy}{dt}}{\frac{dx}{dt}} = \frac{a \cos t}{a \left( \frac{\cos^2 t}{\sin t} \right)} = \frac{\sin t}{\cos t} = \tan t</math> |                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 27 | $\frac{x^2+1}{x^2-5x+6} = 1 + \frac{5x-5}{x^2-5x+6}$ $\frac{5x-5}{(x-2)(x-3)} = \frac{A}{x-2} + \frac{B}{x-3}$ $5x-5 = A(x-3) + B(x-2)$ Equating the coefficients of <math>x</math> <math>A+B=5</math> Equating the constant terms <math>3A+2B=5</math> Solving <math>A=-5</math> and <math>B=10</math> $\int \frac{x^2+1}{x^2-5x+6} dx = \int dx - 5 \int \frac{1}{x-2} dx + 10 \int \frac{dx}{x-3}$ $= x - 5 \log  x-2  + 10 \log  x-3  + C.$                                                                                                                       | -OR- Consider <math>I = \int_1^3  x^2-2x  dx</math> $ x^2-2x  = \begin{cases} -(x^2-2x) & \text{where } 1 \leq x < 2 \\ (x^2-2x) & \text{where } 2 \leq x \leq 3 \end{cases}$ $I = \int_1^2  x^2-2x  dx + \int_2^3  x^2-2x  dx$ $I = \int_1^2 -(x^2-2x) dx + \int_2^3 (x^2-2x) dx$ $I = -\left[\frac{x^3}{3} - x^2\right]_1^2 + \left[\frac{x^3}{3} - x^2\right]_2^3$ $I = -\left[\frac{8}{3} - 4 - \frac{1}{3} + 1\right] + \left[9 - 9 - \frac{8}{3} + 4\right]$ $= -\frac{7}{3} + 3 - \frac{8}{3} + 4$ $I = 7 - 5 = 2$                   |
| 28 | Let <math>x</math> be the length of a side, <math>V</math> be the volume and <math>S</math> be the surface area of the cube. <math>V = x^3</math> and <math>S = 6x^2</math>, where <math>x</math> is a function of time <math>t</math>.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|    | $\frac{dV}{dt} = 9 \text{ cm}^3/\text{s} \text{ (Given)}$ $9 = \frac{dV}{dt} = \frac{d}{dt}(x^3) = \frac{d}{dx}(x^3) \cdot \frac{dx}{dt}$ $= 3x^2 \cdot \frac{dx}{dt}$ $\frac{dx}{dt} = \frac{3}{x^2}$ $\frac{dS}{dt} = \frac{d}{dt}(6x^2) = \frac{d}{dx}(6x^2) \cdot \frac{dx}{dt}$ $= 12x \cdot \left(\frac{3}{x^2}\right) = \frac{36}{x}$ when <math>x = 10 \text{ cm}</math>, $\frac{dS}{dt} = 3.6 \text{ cm}^2/\text{s}$                                                                                                                                                       | - OR - We have <math>y = \frac{2}{3}x^3 + 1 \dots (i)</math> $\Rightarrow \frac{dy}{dt} = \frac{2}{3} \times 3x^2 \times \frac{dx}{dt} = 2x^2 \frac{dx}{dt}$ $\therefore \frac{dy}{dt} = 2 \frac{dx}{dt}$ $\Rightarrow 2 \frac{dx}{dt} = 2x^2 \frac{dx}{dt}$ $\Rightarrow x^2 = 1 \quad \therefore x = \pm 1$ Substituting values of <math>x</math> in (i), we get : <math>y = \frac{5}{3}, \frac{1}{3}</math> points on the curve are <math>\left(1, \frac{5}{3}\right)</math> and <math>\left(-1, \frac{1}{3}\right)</math> |
| 29 | Here <math>f: \mathbb{N} \rightarrow \mathbb{R}</math>, <math>f(x) = 4x^2 + 12x + 15</math> Let <math>x_1, x_2 \in \mathbb{N}</math> and <math>f(x_1) = f(x_2)</math> Then, <math>4x_1^2 + 12x_1 + 15 = 4x_2^2 + 12x_2 + 15</math> $\Rightarrow 4x_1^2 + 12x_1 = 4x_2^2 + 12x_2$ $\Rightarrow 4(x_1^2 - x_2^2) + 12(x_1 - x_2) = 0$ $\Rightarrow (x_1 - x_2)[4(x_1 + x_2) + 12] = 0$ As <math>x_1, x_2 \in \mathbb{N}</math> so, <math>4(x_1 + x_2) + 12 \neq 0</math> $\therefore (x_1 - x_2) = 0$ $\Rightarrow x_1 = x_2 \text{ so, } f \text{ is one-one.}$ | $f(2) = \frac{2}{5}, f\left(\frac{1}{2}\right) = \frac{\frac{1}{2}}{1 + \left(\frac{1}{2}\right)^2} = \frac{1/2}{5/4} = \frac{2}{5}$ That is, <math>f(2) = f\left(\frac{1}{2}\right)</math> but <math>2 \neq \frac{1}{2}</math>. Hence, <math>f</math> is not one-one. Now let <math>y = f(x)</math>, <math>y \in \left[-\frac{1}{2}, \frac{1}{2}\right]</math> That is, <math>y = \frac{x}{1+x^2}</math>                                                                                                                            |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    | -OR -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | For this quadratic equation in <math>x</math>, for all <math>x \in \mathbb{R}</math> we must have <math>(-1)^2 - 4y \times y \geq 0</math> That is, <math>1 - 4y^2 \geq 0</math> <math>\Rightarrow (1 - 2y)(1 + 2y) \geq 0</math> That is, <math>y \in \left[-\frac{1}{2}, \frac{1}{2}\right]</math>. That means, Range = Codomain. Hence, <math>f</math> is onto.                                                                                             |
| 30 | $A = \begin{bmatrix} 2 & 4 & -6 \\ 7 & 3 & 5 \\ 1 & -2 & 4 \end{bmatrix}$ $A' = \begin{bmatrix} 2 & 7 & 1 \\ 4 & 3 & -2 \\ -6 & 5 & 4 \end{bmatrix}$ $P = \frac{1}{2}(A + A') = \frac{1}{2} \begin{bmatrix} 4 & 11 & -5 \\ 11 & 6 & 3 \\ -5 & 3 & 8 \end{bmatrix}$ $= \begin{bmatrix} 2 & \frac{11}{2} & -\frac{5}{2} \\ \frac{11}{2} & 3 & \frac{3}{2} \\ -\frac{5}{2} & \frac{3}{2} & 4 \end{bmatrix}$ Since <math>P' = P</math> <math>\therefore P</math> is a symmetric matrix.                                                                                                                                                                                                              | $\text{Let } Q = \frac{1}{2}(A - A') = \frac{1}{2} \begin{bmatrix} 0 & -3 & -7 \\ 3 & 0 & 7 \\ 7 & -7 & 0 \end{bmatrix}$ $= \begin{bmatrix} 0 & -\frac{3}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{3}{2} & 0 & \frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{7}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} & 0 \end{bmatrix}$ $Q' = -\begin{bmatrix} 0 & -\frac{3}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{3}{2} & 0 & \frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{7}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} & 0 \end{bmatrix} = -Q$ Since <math>Q' = -Q</math> <math>\therefore Q</math> is a skew symmetric matrix. |
|    | $\text{Also } P + Q = \begin{bmatrix} 2 & \frac{11}{2} & -\frac{5}{2} \\ \frac{11}{2} & 3 & \frac{3}{2} \\ -\frac{5}{2} & \frac{3}{2} & 4 \end{bmatrix} + \begin{bmatrix} 0 & -\frac{3}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{3}{2} & 0 & \frac{7}{2} \\ \frac{7}{2} & -\frac{7}{2} & 0 \end{bmatrix} = \begin{bmatrix} 2 & 4 & -6 \\ 7 & 3 & 5 \\ 1 & -2 & 4 \end{bmatrix} = A$                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 31 | Given that <math>y = 3 \cos(\log x) + 4 \sin(\log x)</math> $\frac{dy}{dx} = \frac{d}{dx}(3 \cos(\log x) + 4 \sin(\log x)) = -3 \sin(\log x) \cdot \frac{1}{x} + 4 \cos(\log x) \cdot \frac{1}{x}$ $\Rightarrow x \frac{dy}{dx} = -3 \sin(\log x) + 4 \cos(\log x)$ $x \frac{d^2y}{dx^2} + \frac{dy}{dx} \cdot \frac{d}{dx} x = \frac{d}{dx} [-3 \sin(\log x) + 4 \cos(\log x)]$ $= -3 \cos(\log x) \cdot \frac{1}{x} - 4 \sin(\log x) \cdot \frac{1}{x} = -\frac{1}{x} [3 \cos(\log x) + 4 \sin(\log x)] = -\frac{1}{x} \cdot y$ $\Rightarrow x \frac{d^2y}{dx^2} + \frac{dy}{dx} = -\frac{1}{x} y$ $\Rightarrow x^2 \frac{d^2y}{dx^2} + x \frac{dy}{dx} = -y$ $\Rightarrow x^2 y_2 + x y_1 + y = 0$ |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 32 | Let <math>(a, b) \in N \times N</math>. Then we have <math>ab = ba</math> (by commutative property of multiplication of natural numbers) <math>\Rightarrow (a, b)R(a, b)</math> Hence, <math>R</math> is reflexive. Let <math>(a, b), (c, d) \in N \times N</math> such that <math>(a, b)R(c, d)</math>. Then <math>ad = bc</math> <math>\Rightarrow cb = da</math> (by commutative property of multiplication of natural numbers) <math>\Rightarrow (c, d)R(a, b)</math> Hence, <math>R</math> is symmetric. Let <math>(a, b), (c, d), (e, f) \in N \times N</math> such that <math>(a, b)R(c, d)</math> and <math>(c, d)R(e, f)</math>. Then <math>ad = bc, cf = de</math> <math>\Rightarrow adcf = bcde</math> <math>\Rightarrow af = be</math> <math>\Rightarrow (a, b)R(e, f)</math> Hence, <math>R</math> is transitive. Since, <math>R</math> is reflexive, symmetric and transitive, <math>R</math> is an equivalence relation on <math>N \times N</math>. - OR -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 33 |   <math> x  = \begin{cases} x &amp; , x \geq 0 \\ -x &amp; , x &lt; 0 \end{cases} \Rightarrow f(x) = \begin{cases} \frac{x}{1+x}, &amp; x \geq 0 \\ \frac{x}{1-x}, &amp; x &lt; 0 \end{cases}</math>   For <math>x \geq 0</math> <math>f(x_1) = \frac{x_1}{1+x_1}</math> <math>f(x_2) = \frac{x_2}{1+x_2}</math> <math>f(x_1) = f(x_2)</math> <math>\frac{x_1}{1+x_1} = \frac{x_2}{1+x_2}</math> <math>x_1(1+x_2) = x_2(1+x_1)</math> <math>x_1 + x_1x_2 = x_2 + x_2x_1</math> <math>x_1 = x_2</math>   For <math>x &lt; 0</math> <math>f(x_1) = \frac{x_1}{1-x_1}</math> <math>f(x_2) = \frac{x_2}{1-x_2}</math> Putting <math>f(x_1) = f(x_2)</math> <math>\frac{x_1}{1-x_1} = \frac{x_2}{1-x_2}</math> <math>x_1(1-x_2) = x_2(1-x_1)</math> <math>x_1 - x_1x_2 = x_2 - x_2x_1</math> <math>x_1 = x_2</math>   Hence, if <math>f(x_1) = f(x_2)</math>, then <math>x_1 = x_2 \therefore f</math> is one-one     For <math>x \geq 0</math> <math>f(x) = \frac{x}{1+x}</math> Let <math>f(x) = y</math>, <math>y = \frac{x}{1+x}</math> <math>x = \frac{y}{1-y}</math>, for <math>x \geq 0</math>   For <math>x &lt; 0</math> <math>f(x) = \frac{x}{1-x}</math> Let <math>f(x) = y</math> <math>y = \frac{x}{1-x}</math> <math>x = \frac{y}{1+y}</math>, for <math>x &lt; 0</math>   Here, <math>y \in \{x \in \mathbb{R} : -1 &lt; x &lt; 1\}</math> So, <math>x</math> is defined for all values of <math>y</math>. <math>\therefore f</math> is onto Hence, <math>f</math> is one-one and onto.   |
| 33 |   <math>A = \begin{bmatrix} 1 &amp; 2 &amp; 3 \\ 3 &amp; 2 &amp; 2 \\ 2 &amp; 3 &amp; 2 \end{bmatrix}</math> <math>\Rightarrow  A  = 9 \Rightarrow A^{-1}</math> exists And <math>A^{-1} = \frac{1}{9} \begin{bmatrix} -2 &amp; 5 &amp; -2 \\ -2 &amp; -4 &amp; 7 \\ 5 &amp; 1 &amp; -4 \end{bmatrix}</math>   <math>AX = B \Rightarrow X = A^{-1}B</math> <math>\Rightarrow X = \frac{1}{9} \begin{bmatrix} -2 &amp; 5 &amp; -2 \\ -2 &amp; -4 &amp; 7 \\ 5 &amp; 1 &amp; -4 \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} 85 \\ 105 \\ 110 \end{bmatrix} = \begin{bmatrix} 15 \\ 20 \\ 10 \end{bmatrix}</math> <math>\Rightarrow p_1 = 15, p_2 = 20, p_3 = 10</math>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| 34 | Let <math>u = x^y</math> and <math>v = y^x</math>, therefore, <math>u + v = 1</math> Differentiating with respect to <math>x</math>, we get <math>\frac{du}{dx} + \frac{dv}{dx} = 0 \dots(i)</math> <math>u = x^y</math>, taking log on both the sides, <math>\log u = y \log x</math>, <math>\frac{1}{u} \frac{du}{dx} = y \cdot \frac{d}{dx} \log x + \log x \cdot \frac{d}{dx} y = y \cdot \frac{1}{x} + \log x \cdot \frac{dy}{dx}</math> <math>\frac{du}{dx} = x^y \left[ \frac{y}{x} + \log x \cdot \frac{dy}{dx} \right] \dots(ii)</math>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

$v = y^x$ , taking log on both the sides  $\log v = x \log y$ ,

$$\frac{1}{v} \frac{dv}{dx} = x \cdot \frac{d}{dx} \log y + \log y \cdot \frac{d}{dx} x = x \cdot \frac{1}{y} \frac{dy}{dx} + \log y \cdot 1$$

$$\frac{dv}{dx} = v \left[ \frac{x}{y} \frac{dy}{dx} + \log y \right] = y^x \left[ \frac{x}{y} \frac{dy}{dx} + \log y \right] \dots (iii)$$

Putting the value of  $\frac{du}{dx}$  from (ii) and  $\frac{dv}{dx}$  from (iii) in equation (i), we get

$$x^y \left[ \frac{y}{x} + \log x \cdot \frac{dy}{dx} \right] + y^x \left[ \frac{x}{y} \frac{dy}{dx} + \log y \right] = 0 \Rightarrow yx^{y-1} + x^y \log x \frac{dy}{dx} + xy^{x-1} \frac{dy}{dx} + y^x \log y = 0$$

$$\Rightarrow \frac{dy}{dx} (x^y \log x + xy^{x-1}) = -(y^x \log y + yx^{y-1}) \Rightarrow \frac{dy}{dx} = -\frac{y^x \log y + yx^{y-1}}{x^y \log x + xy^{x-1}}$$

- OR -

$$\frac{dy}{dx} = \frac{d}{dx} (Ae^{mx} + Be^{nx}) = mAe^{mx} + nBe^{nx}$$

$$\Rightarrow \frac{d^2y}{dx^2} = \frac{d}{dx} (mAe^{mx} + nBe^{nx}) = m^2Ae^{mx} + n^2Be^{nx}$$

Putting the value of  $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2}$  and  $\frac{dy}{dx}$  in  $\frac{d^2y}{dx^2} - (m+n)\frac{dy}{dx} + mny$ .

$$\text{LHS} = (m^2Ae^{mx} + n^2Be^{nx}) - (m+n)(mAe^{mx} + nBe^{nx}) + mny$$

$$= m^2Ae^{mx} + n^2Be^{nx} - (m^2Ae^{mx} + mnBe^{nx} + mnAe^{mx} + n^2Be^{nx}) + mny$$

$$= -(mnAe^{mx} + mnBe^{nx}) + mny = -mn(Ae^{mx} + Be^{nx}) + mny$$

$$= -mny + mny = 0 = \text{RHS}$$

35

$$\text{Let } I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{\sin x + \cos x}{\sqrt{\sin 2x}} dx$$

$$\Rightarrow I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{(\sin x + \cos x)}{\sqrt{-(-\sin 2x)}} dx$$

$$\Rightarrow I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{\sin x + \cos x}{\sqrt{-(-1+1-2 \sin x \cos x)}} dx$$

$$\Rightarrow I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{(\sin x + \cos x)}{\sqrt{1-(\sin^2 x + \cos^2 x - 2 \sin x \cos x)}} dx$$

$$\Rightarrow I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{(\sin x + \cos x) dx}{\sqrt{1-(\sin x - \cos x)^2}}$$

$$\text{Let } (\sin x - \cos x) = t \Rightarrow (\sin x + \cos x) dx = dt$$

$$\text{When } x = \frac{\pi}{6}, t = \left( \frac{1-\sqrt{3}}{2} \right),$$

$$\text{when } x = \frac{\pi}{3}, t = \left( \frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2} \right)$$

$$I = \int_{\frac{\pi}{6}}^{\frac{\pi}{3}} \frac{\sin x + \cos x}{\sqrt{\sin 2x}} dx = \int_{\frac{1-\sqrt{3}}{2}}^{\frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2}} \frac{dt}{\sqrt{1-t^2}}$$

$$I = \int_{-\left(\frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2}\right)}^{\frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2}} \frac{dt}{\sqrt{1-t^2}}$$

As  $\frac{1}{\sqrt{1-(-t)^2}} = \frac{1}{\sqrt{1-t^2}}$ , hence,  $\frac{1}{\sqrt{1-t^2}}$  is an even function

As we know that if  $f(x)$  is an even function, then

$$\int_{-a}^a f(x) dx = 2 \int_0^a f(x) dx$$

$$\Rightarrow I = 2 \int_0^{\frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2}} \frac{dt}{\sqrt{1-t^2}} = [2 \sin^{-1} t]_0^{\frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2}}$$

$$= 2 \sin^{-1} \left( \frac{\sqrt{3}-1}{2} \right)$$

36

(i)  $f(x) = -0.1x^2 + mx + 98.6$ , being a polynomial function, is differentiable everywhere, hence, differentiable in  $(0, 12)$

(ii)  $f'(x) = -0.2x + m$

Since, 6 is the critical point,

$$f'(6) = 0 \Rightarrow m = 1.2$$

(iii)  $f(x) = -0.1x^2 + 1.2x + 98.6$

$$f'(x) = -0.2x + 1.2 = -0.2(x - 6)$$

| In the Interval | $f'(x)$ | Conclusion                              |
|-----------------|---------|-----------------------------------------|
| $(0, 6)$        | +ve     | $f$ is strictly increasing in $[0, 6]$  |
| $(6, 12)$       | -ve     | $f$ is strictly decreasing in $[6, 12]$ |

OR

(iii)  $f(x) = -0.1x^2 + 1.2x + 98.6$ ,

$$f'(x) = -0.2x + 1.2, f'(6) = 0,$$

$$f''(x) = -0.2$$

$$f''(6) = -0.2 < 0$$

Hence, by second derivative test 6 is a point of local maximum. The local maximum value  $= f(6) = -0.1 \times 6^2 + 1.2 \times 6 + 98.6 = 102.2$

|    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|----|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 37 | (i) For the open box the length, breadth and height is given by <math>(18 - 2x)</math> cm, <math>(18 - 2x)</math> cm and <math>x</math> cm respectively. (ii) Therefore, the volume of box is, <math>V = (18 - 2x)(18 - 2x)(x) = (324x - 72x^2 + 4x^3)</math> cm<sup>3</sup> (iii) Now <math>\frac{dV}{dx} = 324 - 144x + 12x^2</math> and <math>\frac{d^2V}{dx^2} = -144 + 24x</math> For <math>\frac{dV}{dx} = 0</math>, <math>12(x^2 - 12x + 27) = 0</math> <math>\Rightarrow (x - 9)(x - 3) = 0</math> Either <math>(x - 9) = 0</math> or, <math>(x - 3) = 0</math> <math>\therefore x \neq 9 \quad \therefore x = 3</math> cm <math>\therefore \left( \frac{d^2V}{dx^2} \right)_{\text{at } x=3} = -144 + 24(3) = -72 &lt; 0</math> So, <math>V</math> is maximum at <math>x = 3</math> cm. OR (iii) Refer the solution of (iii) as shown above. Clearly, the maximum volume of open box will be <math>V = (18 - 2x)(18 - 2x)(x) = (18 - 6)^2(3)</math> <math>\Rightarrow V = 432</math> cm<sup>3</sup>. |                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 38 | (i)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | $\begin{bmatrix} 5 & 3 & 1 \\ 2 & 1 & 3 \\ 1 & 2 & 4 \end{bmatrix} \begin{bmatrix} x \\ y \\ z \end{bmatrix} = \begin{bmatrix} 160 \\ 190 \\ 250 \end{bmatrix}$                      |
|    | (ii)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | - 22                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|    | (iii) – a                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | $A^{-1} = \begin{bmatrix} \frac{1}{11} & \frac{5}{11} & -\frac{4}{11} \\ \frac{5}{22} & -\frac{19}{22} & \frac{13}{22} \\ -\frac{3}{22} & \frac{7}{22} & \frac{1}{22} \end{bmatrix}$ |
|    | (ii) – b                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | $P = \begin{bmatrix} 7 & 5 & 13 \\ 5 & 8 & 2 \\ 8 & 3 & 3 \end{bmatrix}$                                                                                                             |