Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Mrs. Jenny was very social. She loved meeting people, inviting friends for meals and helping people. She was known for her kindness and goodness. She would crack jokes to make people laugh. One day while going to shop for groceries, she saw a wounded kitten. She picked up the kitty for a closer look. "What a wound! It has been bitten by something more powerful", Mrs Jenny exclaimed. She carried it home. But carrying the kitty was no joke. Mrs. Jenny had to chase away the barking dogs who wanted to smell the poor baby. With great difficulty she reached home.

Mrs. Jenny brought out a straw basket from her old box and covered it with a soft cloth. Then she carefully placed the kitty inside the basket. The kitty found it comfortable and cozy... it mewed as if to say 'thank you'.

One day, Mrs. Polly visited Mrs. Jenny's house. She saw the kitty and raised an alarm, "Oh! My God! The kitty is infected. It needs medical attention, otherwise it will die." Mrs. Polly helped Mrs. Jenny in finding a veterinary doctor. The vet asked them to leave the kitty in his care. It was only after proper medication that the kitty was saved. Mrs. Jenny was touched and said, "Oh! you've been so kind, Mrs. Polly and thank you, doctor."
