

Class: VIII	Department: ENGLISH	Date of submission: DECEMBER -2023
Worksheet No: 25	Topic: MODAL VERBS	Note: To be done in language notebook

Ex.1. Choose the correct option.

1. When I was young, I _____ swim very well. (should / could)
2. You _____ pay a little more attention to your studies! (might / may)
3. She doesn't often get late; something _____ have gone wrong. (must/ may)
4. Don't worry; I _____ carry the books for you. (would / will)
5. You _____ listen to everyone but do what your heart says. (should /would)
6. She told me that she _____ turn twenty-six next month. (could /would)
7. Though it's late, it _____ be fine even if we reach now. (might / shall)
8. Cyclists _____ wear helmets. (must /can)

Ex.2. Identify the modals in these sentences and choose from the bracket the purpose of each sentence.

(Prohibition or obligation, Polite request, Advice, Moral obligation, Imaginary situation, Express a wish)

1. May you live long! _____
2. Could you help me cross the road? _____
3. I wish you would keep your mouth shut for a while. _____
4. Vehicles must not be parked here. _____
5. You ought to look after your parents. _____
6. You should have listened to your teacher's instruction more seriously. _____
7. Would you lend us your car for a day, please? _____
8. You must be back before dark. _____

Ex.3. Rewrite these sentences using the correct modal verbs.

1. May you solve this sum for me?
2. Could I borrow your pen?
3. He can be relieved with immediate effect.
4. Don't worry; I might carry the books for you.
5. The philosopher was so punctual that people can set their watches by his routine.
6. You may be ashamed of what you have done.
7. Be sincere lest you could fall miserably in life.
8. Might you go so soon?

❖ WEB RESOURCES:

<https://youtu.be/Pzjt1oVKze0>

❖ FUN TIME WITH MODAL VERBS

✓ Based on the picture given below frame 5 sentences using Modal Verbs.

