

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR
DEPARTMENT OF EVS [2023 – 2024]

LESSON: PLANTS AND THEIR CARE
RESOURCE PERSON: Ms. Bibi Khuteja

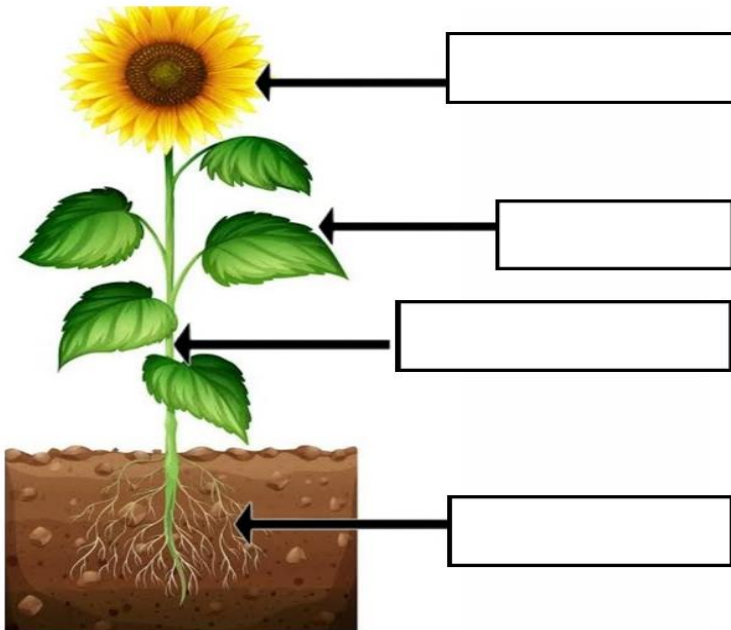

WORKSHEET - 2

NAME: _____ CLASS: IV SEC: _____ DATE: _____

I. Read the statements given below and circle the correct answer.

- Carrot, radish and sweet potato are examples of _____.
a. fibrous roots b. storage roots c. flowering trees d. underground modified stems
- Lateral roots are also called _____.
a. side roots b. main root c. fibrous root d. pop root
- Each seed contains a _____ and for the new plant.
a. seed b. baby plant. c. flowers d. fruits
- Which of the following plants has a tap root?
a. wheat plant b. grass c. pea plant d. maize plant

II. Label the parts of the plant in the boxes provided with the help of the given clues.

- I am the most beautiful part of a plant.
Ans:
- I am a thin, flat and green part of a plant.
Ans:
- I carry water and minerals from the roots to the leaves.
Ans:
- I fix the plant firmly to the ground.
Ans:

b. The Leaf is called 'The kitchen of the plant'. Give reason.

Ans: _____

III. Observe the given picture and provide responses to the questions that follow.

1. .

Identify the Root System shown in the pictures given alongside and name them.

A: _____ B: _____

Give two examples of plants for each type of root.

A: _____

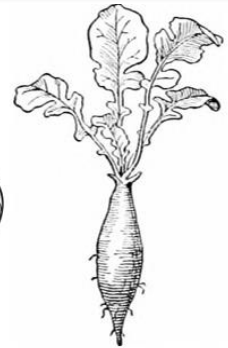

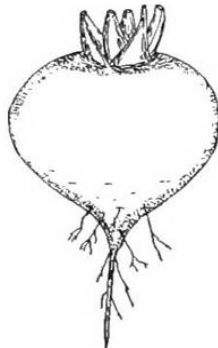

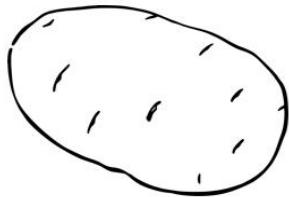

B: _____

2. The event shown in the picture alongside is _____.

In 1974 groups of women boldly _____ the _____ to prevent the loggers from _____ them down. The contractors withdrew and the _____ were saved. This movement was led by two famous environmentalists _____ and _____.

3. Identify the storage roots and colour them.

2. Study the picture shown alongside. Which of the following statements hold TRUE based on the given picture clue? Tick all possible answers.

- a. It is a programme of planting trees and is known as Van Mahotsava. _____.
- b. Trees are planted in large numbers on this day and it is celebrated as a festival of planting trees. _____
- c. Students plant saplings. They also take part in activities like debates, discussions, drawings and painting. _____
- d. The theme for these activities is always related to forest conservation and preservation. _____

