

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH (2024 – 2025)

TOPIC: PRONOUN – PRINTED NOTES

NOTE- 1

RESOURCE PERSON: Ms. SAMEERA FATIMA

NAME: _____ CLASS: II SEC _____ DATE: _____

A 'Pronoun' is a word which is used instead of a noun.

Pronouns can be singular or plural.

1. Singular Pronouns – Talk about one person or thing.
2. Plural Pronouns – Talk about more than one person or thing.

Singular Pronouns

1. I – The pronoun – 'I' is used to speak about oneself. [myself]

E.g. I love to write poems.

2. He – The pronoun – 'He' is used to speak about one boy/man.

Eg. Henry has new crayons. [Henry] He loves them a lot.

3. She – The pronoun – 'She' is used to speak about one girl/woman.

E.g. Jessi is in the park. [Jessi] She is skipping.

4. It – The pronoun – 'It' is used to speak about one thing/ place.

E.g. My mother baked cake. [muffins] It is delicious.

5. His – The pronoun – 'His' is used to speak about one's belonging/ possession of a boy/ man.

E.g. Tom has a bakery. [Tom] His cakes are the best.

6. Her – The pronoun – 'Her' is used to speak about one's belonging/ possession of a girl/woman.

E.g. Lily is a dancer. [Lily] Her dance videos are amazing.

7. Me – The pronoun – 'me' is used to speak about belonging/ possession of things that I have.

E.g. This doll belongs to me?

8. You – The pronoun 'You' is special because it can be singular or plural. The pronoun 'You' is used to speak about another person/ thing. When it talks about only one person /thing, it is a singular pronoun.

E.g. You are my friend.

