The Three Bears

One morning, Goldilocks decided to walk around the nearby forest. She walked leisurely when she happened to see a cozy little cottage. She was curious to see who lived inside it and so knocked politely on its door. The cottage was neatly set up and beautifully decorated. She felt strange see that everything in the cottage was set in three different sizes. At first, she went up to the large armchair placed in the living room. The large chair was too hard for her to sit. Next, she went up to the medium-sized chair. It was too soft for her. Later, she saw that there was a small chair too! After a while, she started to feel hungry. She went into the kitchen and started preparing a large bowl of porridge on the stove. It smelled delicious! She wanted to eat the porridge but kept it aside on the dining table, thinking to eat it with the family that stayed in the cottage. While she waited for them, she started to feel sleepy. She went up to the bedrooms and saw that there were three beds upstairs. The large bed looked too huge for her. While the medium-sized bed looked too soft and cozy. The small bed looked just right! She snuggled into the sheets and slept peacefully when she was suddenly woken up by the Bear Family! They were back home! She offered them the bowl of porridge that she had prepared. They had a hearty meal together. They all just loved it!
