Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Albert Einstein was a famous and brilliant scientist who lived a long time ago. He discovered more about space, time, gravity and how the world works.

Albert Einstein was born in Germany. As a child, he enjoyed solving math riddles and building skyscrapers out of playing cards. He did not do well in school, but he did take an interest in mathematics and science. When he was five years old, his father gave him a magnetic pocket compass to play with, while he was sick in bed. He became interested in the invisible power that move the needle of a compass.

Einstein was born a genius and his curiosity and love for learning started when he was a little boy, and he never stopped asking questions. He loved to imagine and think about the universe in ways no one had before. He won the Nobel Prize for Physics in 1921. For Albert Einstein, playing the piano and violin helped him to relax, focus, and get back to his work.

Einstein was one of the greatest scientists in history. Thanks to his brilliant mind, we now know more about space, time, and how everything is connected. He said that you should not worry about success but be of value. Try to discover your hidden gifts and talents, and see how you can benefit others with them.
