

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH [2024– 2025]

TOPIC: POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

HANDOUT

RESOURCE PERSON: Farah Dalal

NAME: _____ CLASS: IV SEC: ____ DATE: _____

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. They make sentences shorter and easier to say.

A Possessive Pronoun is a word that takes the place of names of someone or something that shows possession.

Possessive Pronouns do not come with an apostrophe.

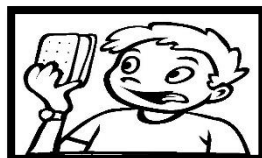

PERSONAL PRONOUNS	POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS
I have a bicycle.	The bicycle is mine .
You have a bicycle.	The bicycle is yours .
He has a bicycle.	The bicycle is his .
She has a bicycle.	The bicycle is hers .
It has a bicycle	X
We have a bicycle.	The bicycle is ours .
They have a bicycle.	The bicycle is theirs .

Example:

It is her car. The car is hers.

It is my sandwich. The sandwich is mine.

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH [2024– 2025]

TOPIC: POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

HANDOUT

RESOURCE PERSON: Farah Dalal

NAME: _____ CLASS: IV SEC: ____ DATE: _____

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. They make sentences shorter and easier to say.

A Possessive Pronoun is a word that takes the place of names of someone or something that shows possession.

Possessive Pronouns do not come with an apostrophe.

PERSONAL PRONOUNS	POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS
I have a bicycle.	The bicycle is mine .
You have a bicycle.	The bicycle is yours .
He has a bicycle.	The bicycle is his .
She has a bicycle.	The bicycle is hers .
It has a bicycle	X
We have a bicycle.	The bicycle is ours .
They have a bicycle.	The bicycle is theirs .

Example:

It is her car. The car is hers.

It is my sandwich. The sandwich is his.

