

LESSON: PLANTS AND ANIMALS NEED WATER

REVISION WORKSHEET

RESOURCE PERSON: MANJULA HARINARAYANAN

NAME: _____ CLASS: III SEC: _____ DATE: _____

1. Choose the correct answer.

- a) An elephant uses its _____ to shower its body.
(i) tusk (ii) trunk (iii) legs (iv) hands
- b) The _____ of cactus plants are covered with a waxy layer to prevent water loss.
(i) stems (ii) leaves (iii) roots (iv) fruits
- c) A camel stores water in its _____.
(i) neck (ii) hump (iii) stomach (iv) mouth
- d) _____ is an aquatic plant.
(i) Rose (ii) Lotus (iii) Hibiscus (iv) Jasmine
- e) The process by which plants make their food with the help of air, water and sunlight is called _____.
(i) germination (ii) photosynthesis (iii) transpiration (iv) digestion

2. Rewrite the following with correct statements.

- a) A whale is a desert animal.

- b) A tiger is an aquatic animal.

- c) Cactus roots are converted into spines to prevent water loss.

- d) Wild animals like elephants depend on seas, oceans and glaciers for their water requirements.

- e) Animals living in the desert need more water to survive.

3. Observe the pictures given below. Based on your observation, answer the questions that follow.

a) Is the plant in Pot A healthy? What do you think the plant in Pot A is lacking?

b) Why is water important for plants?

4. Answer the following.

a) What are the special features of camels to be able to live in hot dry deserts?

a) What is the main source of water on the earth? How do plants get this water?
