

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

DEPARTMENT OF EVS [2023 – 2024]

LESSON: REPRODUCTION IN ANIMALS

WORKSHEET 1

RESOURCE PERSON: Ms. Bibi Khuteja

NAME: _____ CLASS: IV SEC: _____ DATE: _____

I. Choose and circle the correct answer.

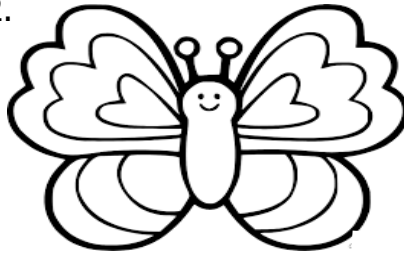

- The shell formed around a caterpillar is called _____.
(a) cocoon (b) adult butterfly (c) pupa
- Grasshoppers and cockroaches have _____ stages in their life cycle.
(a) three (b) four (c) five`
- Whales and dolphins look like fish, but they are _____.
(a) insects (b) mammals (c) reptiles
- A _____ grows into an adult fish.
(a) spawn (b) young baby fish (c) fry
- _____ dig shallow pits in sandy river banks to lay their eggs.
(a) snakes (b) lizards (c) crocodiles

II. Match the following living organisms with their eggs and colour them.

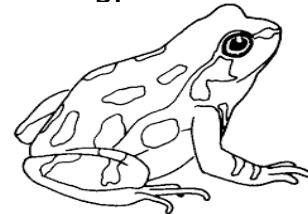

1.

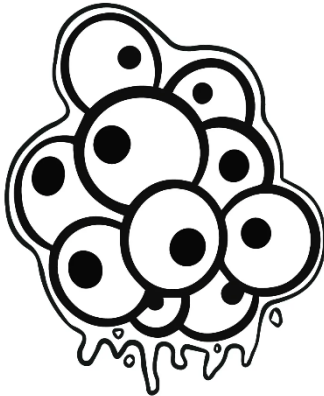

2.

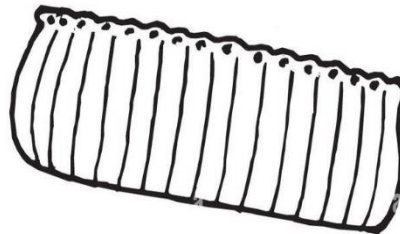

3.

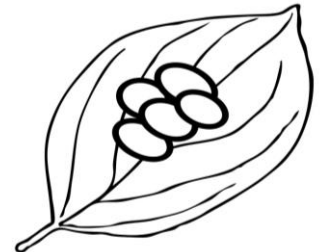

a.

b.

c.

Ans: 1: _____

2: _____

3: _____

III. Given below are some application-based questions. Think well and answer them.

1. Sam observed that birds sit on their eggs before the eggs hatch into their young ones. Can you tell him the reason for it?

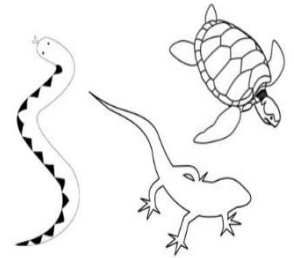

---

---

---

---

2. Rohan has a question for you. Reptiles like lizards, turtles and snakes do not sit on their eggs to keep them warm. Justify your answer.

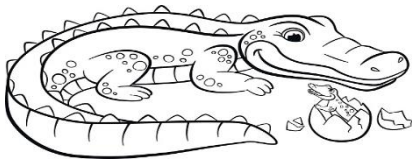

---

---

---

---

3. Diya was given an assignment in EVS. She was asked to fill in the blanks by choosing the correct answer from the help box. Help Diya to complete the assignment.

special pouch, hatch, guards, mouth, eggs,
young ones, shallow pits, sand, free,

Crocodiles dig _____ in sandy river banks to lay their _____. The mother covers the eggs with _____ and _____ them. When the babies _____ out from the eggs. It digs away the sand and sets them _____. As the _____ come out, the mother keeps them in a _____ at the bottom of her _____ for some time.