

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH [2022– 2023]

TOPIC: CONJUNCTIONS

WORKSHEET

RESOURCE PERSON: Ms.Jayalakshmi Nair

NAME: _____ CLASS: _____ SEC: _____ DATE: _____

I. Underline the Conjunctions from the story given below.

Pepper and Soju are friends. They have been best friends since the day they met. Although Pepper studied very hard, he failed. Pepper was very sad but he pretended that everything was fine. One-day Pepper visited Soju at his home and was surprised by what he saw. Although Soju lived in a small house, he never complained. He told his friend Soju, though I live in a big mansion, I have not been grateful for the things I have. Soju told his friend that unless he showed gratitude for the things that he already had, he wouldn't be blessed with more things.

II. Circle the appropriate Conjunctions for the given sentences.

- 1.I cannot play the game (since/because) my arm injury.
2. He is lazy (yet/so) he got the job.
3. She bought a beautiful dress (though/for) it was her birthday.
- 4.(Although/ Because) Jamie lied, his mother did not scold him.

5. Sarah cannot go out to play (since/unless) she finishes her lunch.
6. They moved to another country (since/if) life was better there.
7. We live next to the school (because/yet) we were late that day.
8. I had an ice cream (though/unless) I had a sore throat.

III.Rewrite with appropriate Conjunctions from the box.

although, since, unless, yet

- 1.He is rich. He is greedy.

_____.

- 2.He is sad. He lost his lunchbox.

_____.

3. You can wait. You want to miss your appointment.

_____.

- 4.My mother was angry. She kept quiet.

_____.