

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR

Class: VI	Department: ENGLISH	Date of submission: APRIL -2023
Worksheet No:4	Topic: SUBJECT & PREDICATE	Note: TO BE DONE IN LANGUAGE NOTEBOOK

➤ Definition:

- ✓ The part of a sentence that performs the action is called the subject.
- ✓ The part of a sentence that is not the subject is called the predicate. It tells us more about the subject.

➤ Points to remember:

- ✓ The subject does not always come at the beginning of a sentence.

For example: Down rolled the stones.

- ✓ Some sentences have more than one subject and predicate.
- ✓ To find the subject in a question or an exclamation, rewrite it.

For example:

- Has Anna baked a cake? (question)
In order to find the subject, you may write this sentence as:
- Anna has baked a cake. (statement)
We can now easily see that the subject is Anna.

EX.1. UNDERLINE THE SUBJECT:

1. The lights are on.
2. The Indian team won the match.
3. My father's best friend gave him a present.
4. In that jungle lived a lion.
5. At one corner of the room sat the princess.
6. The beautiful rainbow soon faded away.
7. In a corner of the park stood Raju.
8. Flowers bloomed everywhere.

EX.2. UNDERLINE THE PREDICATE:

1. The rain storm flooded the village.
2. Some people perform their duties sincerely.
3. One of the prisoners escaped.
4. Children like balloons.
5. The nightingale has a sweet voice.
6. Her parents took her to the doctor.
7. The rich should help the poor.
8. Barking dogs seldom bite.
