

INDIAN SCHOOL AL WADI AL KABIR
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH [2024– 2025]

TOPIC: PREFIX AND SUFFIX

RECAP WORKSHEET

RESOURCE PERSON: Farah Dalal

ANSWER KEY

NAME: _____ CLASS: V SEC: ____ DATE: _____

I. Underline the words wherein the Prefixes have been wrongly used. Write the words with the correct Prefixes in the blanks given.

1. There was a lot of cheating. The match was infair. unfair
2. The pupils made an immense inprovement in Literature.
improvement
3. I must have inheard you because I thought you called out my name! misheard
4. He really unliked his attitude, because he was too proud.
disliked
5. The young person looks like a quiet, unoffensive sort of boy.
inoffensive
6. It is still inclear how prepared she will be for the presentation.
unclear
7. Martha miswraped her birthday gifts quickly after the party.
unwrapped
8. The cyclist was unqualified from the race after failing the health test. disqualified

II. Choose the correct Suffix for the root words given in the parenthesis to complete the sentences.

1. Though she lacked practical experience, the child was praised for her bookish (book) knowledge. (ish, er)
2. Mr. James went at a great loss in his business which left him penniless. (penny) (ish, less)
3. The painter (paint) brushed over the canvas to bring out a more vivid effect. (er, ment)
4. He wanted to enjoy his retirement (retire) without financial worries. (ish, ment)
5. Driving through the total darkness (dark) was a slightly strange experience. (ness, er)
6. It is always advantageous (advantage) to work in a team. (ment, ous)
7. The invention (invent) of the wheel, brought a revolution in the transport system. (ion, er)