Worksheet No: 4	Topic: WISDOM PAVES THE WAY	Note: TO BE DONE IN PROSE NOTEBOOK

SUMMARY

The play 'Wisdom Paves the Way' tells the story of four intelligent and observant young men—Ram Datt, Shiv Datt, Har Datt, and Dev Datt—on their way to the city of Ujjain in search of employment. They come across camel tracks and, through keen observation and reasoning, deduce several characteristics of the camel without even seeing it. Soon, a merchant arrives in distress, claiming to have lost his camel. The young men accurately describe it, but deny seeing it. Suspicious, the merchant takes them to the King, accusing them of theft. In the King's court, the four men explain how their deductions were made using logic and observation. Impressed, the King praises their wisdom and appoints them as advisers, while the merchant is left ashamed. This tale emphasizes the importance of observation, wisdom, and integrity.
